TOWN RECEIVES EARLY CHRISTMAS GIFT OF FUNDING

HALTON HILLS, ON – Christmas has come early to the Town of Halton Hills with the news that another application to the Government of Canada and the Federation of Canadian Municipalities (FCM) has been successful in securing project-specific funding. The municipality will receive $50,000 from the Municipal Asset Management Program to develop its first asset management plan.

“The Federation of Canadian Municipalities launched the asset management grant in February, recognizing that the importance of strengthening the ability of cities and towns to better look after their infrastructure,” said Mayor Bonnette. “This investment allows the Town to plan and study our current and future inventory to ensure we continue to provide residents the best value for their tax dollars.”

The grant will be used to conduct a condition assessment of current assets, develop a strategy, work plan and policies to support the municipality in projecting future needs regarding budgets, maintenance and operations.

About the Town of Halton Hills

The Town of Halton Hills, with a population of approximately 60,000, consists of two urban centres, Georgetown and Acton, with three hamlets – Glen Williams, Stewarttown and Norval – and several smaller settlements.
