What is the Taxi Scrip Program?

The Taxi Scrip program is an economically priced, curb-to-curb transportation program provided by the Town of Halton Hills for registered ActiVan riders. The program allows the registered user the ability to make spontaneous travel decisions.

The Taxi Scrip program also allows ActiVan users the ability to book a trip directly with local taxi companies at a 40 per cent discount to the user.

Note, E-Z Taxi and G'Town Taxi both have accessible vehicles that accommodate wheelchairs and scooters.

G'Town Taxi 905-873-2222

E-Z Taxi 905-873-9900

McKab Taxi 905-877-1234

In order to purchase Taxi Scrip coupons, you must be a registered user. For information on how to apply call 905-702-6435 or visit www.HaltonHills.ca/transit.

How do I pay for the Taxi?

Each Taxi Scrip book has a total face value of $20 and is sold to registered users for $12. Each registrant is entitled to purchase up to four Taxi Scrip coupon books per month to a total face value of $80. Each book contains 20—$1 taxi coupons.

How do I use the Taxi Scrip program?

- Call a local taxi company
- Show the taxi driver your ActiVan registration card
- Use Taxi Scrip coupons to pay the fare on the meter
- If the meter fare is over 60 cents, you must pay the extra amount. If the meter fare is under 60 cents, you do not have to pay the extra amount.
