PURPOSE

In keeping with the intent of the Canadian Code for Volunteer Involvement, “for each volunteer to be engaged and enthused about their role and to have a positive experience with a sense of accomplishment”, the Volunteer Management Policy is designed to:

1. Adopt volunteer management practices that will manage risk, enhance program delivery and accountability, and protect volunteers, staff and public from harm
2. Meet the responsibility of the Recreation and Parks Department to carefully hire, train and support people who are carrying out volunteer activities that benefit both the Department and the volunteer
3. Provide guidance to staff in their role to facilitate positive experiences for Department volunteers

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Recreation and Parks Department acknowledges that volunteers are a vital human resource. Volunteers contribute to the overall sustainability of their communities and to the effective delivery of Department programs, services, committees and events.

Built upon the Recreation and Parks Department’s mandate and values, the Volunteer Management Program demonstrates our belief that:

- Volunteers enhance service provision by increasing the potential scope, quality, accessibility, availability and affordability of programs, services and opportunities to Halton Hills residents

- Volunteer activities contribute to a sense of community pride and ownership, and can provide opportunities for personal growth, skill development, social interaction, physical activity and enjoyment for customers and volunteers
- Volunteers are a valuable and integral community resource, requiring and warranting appropriate volunteer management practices

Volunteers enhance and support the work of Town employees, but do not replace paid staff required to carry out core programs, services and events.

DEFINITIONS

Activity is defined as programs, events, projects, committees or undertakings which contribute to the mandate and strategic objectives of the Department.

Canadian Code for Volunteer Involvement was developed by Volunteer Canada and provides voluntary and not-for-profit organizations with a philosophical framework for involving volunteers at the governance, leadership and direct service levels. The Code outlines the values, principles, and standards for effective volunteer practices within organizations.

Co-op Placement/Student Volunteer is a student, placed within one or more units of the Department as part of a secondary or post-secondary academic course requirement. Student Volunteers must be screened and trained like all other volunteers prior to a placement being confirmed.

Department all references to “Department” denote “The Recreation and Parks Department”.

Department Management Team refers to the Director of Recreation and Parks, Manager of Recreation Services, Manager of Parks and Open Space and Manager of Facilities.

Direct Service Volunteer Opportunities are defined as volunteer opportunities in which the volunteer interacts directly with program participants or other customers, including persons deemed to be vulnerable.

Duty of Care is a legal principle which identifies the obligation of individuals and organizations to take reasonable measures to care for and protect their clients and customers to an appropriate level or standard. The standard can be defined as the level of care that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in a similar situation.

Indirect Service Volunteer Opportunities are defined as volunteer opportunities in which the volunteer does not interact directly with program participants. Volunteers may be involved with administration, committees, program support and/or special events.

Risk Management is the discipline for dealing with the possibility that some future event will cause harm. It provides strategies, techniques and an approach to recognize and confront any threat or danger that may hinder the organization from fulfilling its mission.

Town all references to “Town” denote “The Corporation of the Town of Halton Hills”.

Volunteer is an individual enrolled by the Recreation and Parks Department who gives freely of their time, energy and skills to contribute to the mandate and strategic objectives of the Department while receiving no monetary benefit.

Vulnerable Persons are defined as individuals who are at greater risk of being harmed than the general population, because of their age, disability or circumstances whether temporary or permanent. “Vulnerable Persons” can include children, youth, senior citizens, people with physical, developmental, emotional, social, or other disabilities, but will also include people who have been victims of crime or accident, those who are addicted or dependent on addictive substances, and those who are otherwise left with little or no defence against persons who would harm them.

SCOPE

This policy pertains to all individuals participating in Recreation and Parks Department led activities in a volunteer capacity and affects staff working with Recreation and Parks Department volunteers.

Exclusions: This is not a program for community volunteers, volunteers and student volunteers within other Town of Halton Hills Departments such as library volunteers. However, the standards and resources developed as part of this Policy may be modified and implemented by each Department as needed. Procedures related to management of Department volunteers will be shared as a best practice for community organizations when entering into agreements with the Recreation and Parks Department.

POLICY DETAILS

The Recreation and Parks Department has adopted the volunteer management principles and organizational standards of the Canadian Code for Volunteer Involvement as a guide to involving volunteers in our programs, services, committees and events. The Canadian Code minimizes risk to the municipality and volunteers by outlining national standards and best practices for volunteer involvement. It ensures the integrity of the volunteers’ experience, while providing safe and meaningful services to program participants and the community.
