New Exhibitions at the Cultural Centre

HALTON HILLS, ON – Two new exhibitions are now on view at the Town of Halton Hills Cultural Centre. In the Helson Gallery, Locally Grown: Celebrating Canada, explores our country’s unique landscape, people and history through the eyes of local artists. Works in a variety of media by local artists are featured and many are available for sale. The exhibition continues until mid-September.

In the Sisnett Lobby, A Walk through the Woods, an exhibition of the Southern Ontario Visual Artists (SOVA) will be on view from June 12 to August 19, 2017. This group of artists from neighbouring communities has been exhibiting together for a number of years and the public is invited to ‘Meet the Artists’ on Saturday, June 24 from 11 to 1 pm. at the Cultural Centre.

“It’s inspiring to see our community’s rich artistic heritage continue to grow through our many talented local artists and artisans,” said Mayor Rick Bonnette.

The Helson Gallery is located at 9 Church St., Halton Hills and is open Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays: 1 – 5 p.m. and on Thursdays: 1 – 8:30 p.m. Please note, the Gallery and Cultural Centre are closed on Sundays during July and August. There is no admission fee charged to visit the exhibitions.

About the Town of Halton Hills

The Town of Halton Hills, with a population of approximately 60,000, consists of two urban centres, Georgetown and Acton, with three hamlets – Glen Williams, Stewarttown and Norval – and several smaller settlements.
